Re: Disputed Credit Card Charges – David Jenkins

Dear Mr. Arnold:

I am the Assistant Vice President of Card Services for Central Bank & Trust Co. Our department processes all credit and debit card disputes received by Central Bank. David L. Turner forwarded to me your letter dated June 26, 2009, so that I could investigate the following disputed charges referenced in your letter:

Transaction Description	Amount	Ref. #	Post Date	Trans Date
1. Thorobred #1 Louisville, KY	$27.00	24765018008010000155331	01-08-08	01-08-08
2. Thorobred #1 Louisville, KY	$110.00	24765018008010000155349	01-08-08	01-08-08
3. Thorobred #1 Louisville, KY	$140.00	24765018008010000155356	01-08-08	01-08-08
4. Calypso Enterprises, LLC 859-333-0009 CA	$175.00	24765018038010000438996	02-07-08	02-07-08
5. Godfather II Louisville, KY	$168.25	24254778052453503600092	02-21-08	02-21-08

You have requested that the above charges be removed from the account and that the account be credited in the amount of $620.25 because the charges were not incurred or authorized by Mr. David Jenkins. Pursuant to your Corporate Card Agreement, however, you must notify us of any billing errors or unauthorized charges within sixty (60) days after we sent you the bill where the problem appeared. The charges above were incurred over one year ago. Further, if an organization requests that ten (10) or more Cards be issued to it (which is the case with KACo), then the organization is liable for any and all unauthorized use of the Card. Consequently, because the terms of your Agreement prohibit it, we are unable to remove the charges. As I am sure you understand, these provisions are in place to limit the substantial exposure that Central Bank would otherwise face.

We greatly value your banking relationship and hope that this information is helpful. We regret any unauthorized charges on your Card and would be happy to meet and discuss ways to prevent or minimize such charges in the future. If we can assist you in any other way, please do not hesitate to contact me at 859-253-6271.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Beverly Smalley, AVP". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above the printed name and title.
